Dear

Advocacy In Motion, Inc. (AIM), is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization serving individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in our community. We seek to transform lives and cultivate independence through programs focused on education, independence, advocacy and employment. We believe in real work for real pay, but finding meaningful employment for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) is not a one-size-fits-all endeavor. The Job Olympics competition was developed to promote transition and employability skills for a broad spectrum of high school students in special education. Job Olympics brings together over 500 students from 33 different schools throughout the area. Competitions representing actual job and employment situations are judged by business people from the community and professionals in education. At the awards ceremony, the top schools and competitors will be recognized with ribbons, medals and trophies.

We ask that you consider being an event sponsor of one of our 28 employment skill events. Students with special needs have spent months practicing for these competitions in skill categories that align with their strengths and interests. We would love the opportunity to allow these candidates to showcase their skills in front of potential community employers like you!

As a sponsor of Job Olympics, you will receive positive media attention from your association with Advocacy In Motion, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit, enjoy signage at the event and recognition in all communications with over 30 schools in Kansas. We will include recognition of your company on our website and social media marketing. Thank you in advance for taking the time to review our sponsorship request.

With Warm Regards,

Sarah Otto
Executive Director

JOB OLYMPICS SPONSORSHIP:

Go back to the moment you got your first job. Was it a summer job? Were you a high school student? Had you recently graduated college? Advocacy In Motion (AIM) wants to help individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities experience the same excitement as they enter the career field; some for the very first time. Show the community you support the independence and employment of people with developmental disabilities in the greater Kansas City region with your sponsorship.

To sponsor, complete the bottom of this form. For more information, visit www.advocacyinmotion.org
